

Mole Valley Quilters

November 2018

Well I think the summer is over despite having some wonderful days in in October. The clocks have gone back and Christmas is around the corner.

Firstly many apologies for not producing a Newsletter last month but we were very busy organising the Exhibition!

Our last meeting in September was the Suitcase Collection which unfortunately I was unable to attend but I understand it was a fascinating and interesting evening. Many thanks to Ruth (Archer) for organising the evening.

Our New Banner is now finished. Many thanks to Gill Harris and Linda Keets. Thank you Linda for making a bag for it!
