

Mole Valley Quilters

MAY 2018

Find us on Facebook—Mole Valley Quilters

There was a good turn out for the AGM and we sadly said goodbye to our Chairman Marie-Louise Oldrey. Gill Harris, our Treasurer, will be staying on until after the Exhibition. Many thanks to you both.

Thank you to everyone who brought in their “bugs” square for the Bookham Village Day. We need them all returned by the May Meeting.

Sue Pindar also gave out some patterns for the Scarves for the Royal Marsden Hospital .

Linda Keets showed us some of her quilts and then explained how she puts them together.

Gill Harris also talked about her quilts which she makes for ‘Help the Heroes’.

Jenny Morris showed us her Bow tie Quilt which was made by the Thursday evening House Group and exhibited at the Fetcham Church Exhibition.

Gill Penn very kindly donated a quilt for Linus.

New Banner for Mole Valley Quilters

Penny Anslow and Gill Penn showed us designs for the new banner and were asked if they would join a small group of “willing” volunteers, including Marie Louise Oldrey, Linda Keets, Val Graham and Gill Harris. Many thanks—we look forward to seeing the new Banner.

Creative Quilting East Molesey

Creative Quilting are holding a Boomerang Bag making afternoon on:

Sunday May 13—12 noon till 4 pm in the shop. Sewing machines and kits ready to get stitching.

The idea is for the community to get together and make fabric bags out of recycled fabrics, those bags are then given to local shops and they in turn give them to their customers.

You are welcome to keep the bag you make or leave it with us to give to customers. It is entirely FREE!
