October 2017

It is time to dust off the sewing machine put the garden to bed, having planted the bulbs of course!

The nights are drawing in and I cannot believe it is nearly dark at 7 o'clock.

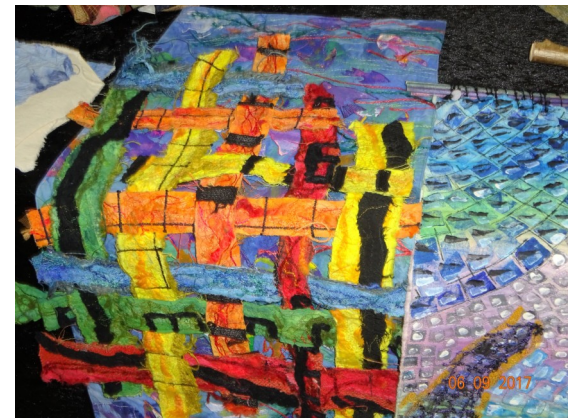

Our September Meeting was well attended and we had an inspiring talk by Anne Hellyer on Machine Embroidery.

Anne is a textile artist who hand paints her fabric to create city and townscapes, embellishing them with free machine embroidery.

Her work is designed to be free standing but can also be wall mounted. She showed us many examples of her work which were truly amazing.

MVQ continues to grow and this month we welcomed two new members. A very warm welcome to Jennifer Ashurst and Sue Crosby.

Our next meeting is stitch Sewing for the Sales table.
