February 2022

Dear Members

Could spring be here the daffodils are springing up and the snowdrops are out and the sun is shining?

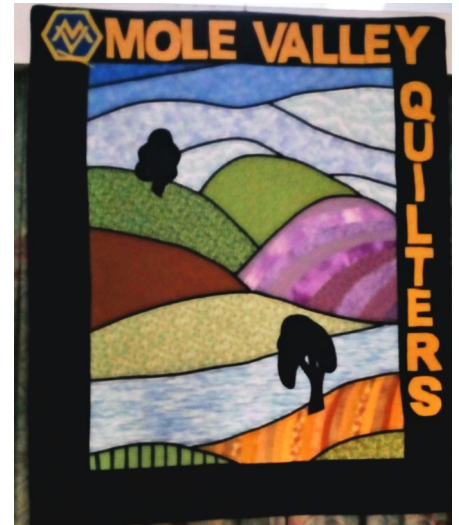

Four of us spent a day at the Ardingly Quilt show—loads of temptation and it was so good to see fabric for real rather than on line. Gillian Travis had her journal quilts on display and it was interesting to see them up close and real! Ruth Archer also had a journal quilt on display—Well done Ruth!

Last month we had a change of speaker and day and we welcomed again Gillian Travis who spoke about her Lockdown Reflections. What an energetic lady! Her talk was recorded so I hope that those Members who were unable to attend the Meeting could watch it afterwards.

This month we have another zoom meeting and we welcome Jo Avery and her talk will be on Aurifilosophy. Jo will be sharing her huge collection of hand and machine stitched projects to inspire us to explore new creative heights.

With best wishes to you all

The Challenge was "Stencil exchange" Ruth made the two seed head stencils and turned the 6" square into an embellished 12" square. Ruth's is the one on the left

COME AND JOIN US

AT THE SCOUT HUT ON THURSDAY 17 FEBRUARY

If you would like to spend a jolly morning with other quilters, then please do join us at the Scout Hut in Fetcham on the 3rd Thursday of the month which will fall on the 17th February. The hall gets warm and cosy, we each work at our own table should you want to bring your sewing machine, and we can have first dibs from the fabric stash and selection of kits. Either bring your coffee or drinks can be made in the kitchen. Really important matters of the day are discussed - would you quilt in the ditch/would you use this colour/do you like this pattern etc etc - and leave our worries outside the door! What more could you need or want? Put it in your diary - 17 February 9.30am until...whenever.
