

Mole Valley Quilters

www.molevalleyquilters.org.uk

September 2021

Dear Members

A very warm welcome to you all. It is wonderful to be back in the Barn Hall and to be able to resume our monthly meetings face to face.

We shall continue to meet in the Barn Hall unless circumstances change.

On Thursday last week we had a Celebratory Ruby Tea Party in Great Bookham by kind permission of Pippa and her husband Kevln. We had no rain and a wonderful afternoon with delicious sandwiches and cakes.

We welcomed present members, past Members and founder Members. Kate Christie kindly agreed to judge our Ruby Challenge. The results were:

1st Pippa Bishop
2nd Karuna Lawrence
3rd Katherine Clayton

Congratulations to the winners and to everyone who made a challenge quilt. These Challenges were on display at Bookham Village Day on Bank Holiday Monday.

Thank you to everyone who came to the Tea Party and brought cakes/sandwiches, etc. It was so good see you all again!

Bookham Village Day

Bookham Village Day was held this year on August Bank Holiday.

Although there was no parade and fewer stalls what a wonderful morning and afternoon. We had our usual position on the stage and what a superb display of Quilts and Sales Table. Thank you to Members who came and worked so hard all day—special thanks to Kevin Bishop and Arnold Pindar for putting up and taking down the quilt stands so efficiently and fast! By midday the hall was crowded and the sales Table made £116.90 and the Safari Quilt was raffled and made £111.00—the raffle money goes to Bookham Village Community. Thank you to everyone for making so many items for our Sales Table.

Our speaker this month is Cathy Corbishley-Michel presenting a talk on 'Cyanotype' a photographic method of printing on fabric using two chemicals and UV to produce a cyan-blue print.

The scout Hut

Message from Gill Harris:

Gill Will be at the Scout hut every third Thursday from 9.30 to midday to sandwich quilts. First time will be 16 September. Even if you do not have a top to quilt you would be most welcome to just join in tacking!

Wadding

If you need wadding please contact Jane Whately. It is 96" wide and £10 a metre.

Bookham Village Day 2021

After our Ruby Party I have attached with the Newsletter a small memento of the day!

