1 June 2022

Dear all,

June is here and I expect you have all had your fill of cake, scones and trifle while celebrating the Queens Jubilee....

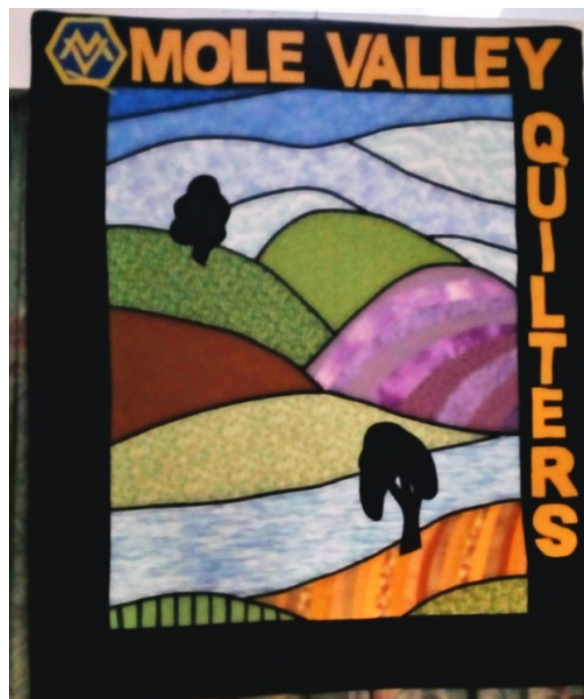

With all the "jollyness" I hope you have had some time for sewing !!!

On June 18th we have our usual display spot and can present our craft to the public at Bookham Village Day and we may recruit new members. Our Challenge Jubilee pieces will be displayed pinned to a back cloth.

It should be a fun day as usual. Let's hope it is a dry day!!!

Look forward to seeing you on Thursday evening and at the Village day,

Marie-Louise x

NEXT MEETING

Our next meeting is in our usual room - the Harrison Room at Old Barn Hall in Bookham this Thursday 9th June. Please arrive by 7.15 for a 7.30 start.

Our speaker this month is Arlene Shawcross who will be talking to us on the topic 'Inspired to Stitch' Arlene is a textile artist and teacher who is inspired by music and roses which stems from her Cheshire childhood. She does free machine embroidery and combines a rich use of colour and design.

She will be bringing examples of her work with her on Thursday to share with us all.

A REMINDER OF THE 2022 CHALLENGE

Don't forget that the challenge is due to be judged at this meeting. Please will you bring your finished challenges with you to the meeting this Thursday.

Remember to add your name and title to the back of the quilt!

For the last minute stitchers - The title for this years challenge is "Jubilee" and consists of a miniature quilt of 3 layers - A4 portrait or landscape.
The design and concept is entirely yours and any technique can be used - eg patchwork, quilting, decorative hand stitching and any embellishment. The only requirement is that it includes red white and blue
