

Mole Valley Quilters

What a lovely afternoon we had at The Garden Party! Thank you so much to Pam and Pete for hosting. The sun shone and the tea and conversation flowed. There were lots of fun and beautiful entries in the decorated hat competition but Alison just edged into first place with her Hat of Hobbies to win some delicious chocolates. Well done all.

Penny gave a demonstration of Ikebana flower arranging.

Next meeting 5th September

Creative Quilting from Hampton Court is going to talk about a few new tools and gadgets that may interest us. They are also bringing a pop up shop so come prepared with cash please as card payments can sometimes fail in the hall. This is an ideal opportunity to stock up without having to travel miles!

I hope you don't mind but I want to give a little plug here for a beginners course I am running in my village of Forest Green. If you know anyone who may be interested please pass on this information.
